SHERIFF MAGNUM OUT WITH FACTS

Declares He Feels It His Duty to Say a Good Word For Medicine That Has Helped Him So Much.

"Tanlac has certainly helped me and I recommend it to others, for what it has done in my case," said Hon. W. C. Mangum, of Atlanta, sheriff of Fulton county.

"I have personally recommended it to a great many people, and I know at least fifteen or twenty families on my way so."

"I am 70 years of age and have most always been pretty strong and healthy until here lately I have been in a nervous, worn-out, rundown condition. My stomach was upset most of the time, and I digested my food poorly. Most always after eating I would have a full, uncomfortable feeling that would last for several hours."

"After taking the second bottle of Tanlac the fullness and all the disagreeable symptoms disappeared, and my condition is now that of a well man. I now eat heartily without any bad after effects, and I sleep well at night."

"Tanlac seemed to be just what I needed to put my system in shape, and has toned me right up. Under the circumstances I think it perfectly natural for me to say a good word for it and recommend it to my friends."

Among the large number of prominent men in public life in the south who have recently given Tanlac their unqualified endorsement for the specific aid to them are: Hon. McKenzie Moss, judge of the eighth Kentucky judicial district; Hon. Moses R. Glenn, Kentucky state superintendent of printing; Hon. John R. Gaines, editor and publisher of the Bowling Green Daily News; George W. Hinton, former secretary of the Warren County Equity League; Prof. Peeg, of the Newport Business College, and others.

Among those prominent in commercial life, who have recently endorsed Tanlac are: C. C. Cooper, president of the Georgia Cotton Oil Company, Lawrenceville, Ga.; H. W. Hill, bank president, of South Pittsburg, Tenn.; J. F. Carroll, cotton mill superintendent, of Chattahoochee, Ga.; C. M. Conover, manager of the office supply department of Foot and Davies, Atlanta, Ga.; and S. S. Shepard, ex-city councilman, Atlanta.

Tanlac is sold exclusively in Columbus at S. B. Street and Son's drug store.
